Official Investigation.

Maj. George O. Squier, acting chief signal officer of the army, this morning convened the board of signal officers for the purpose of making an official inquiry into the death of Lieutenant Selfridge. Maj. Charles Mack Salisman acted as chairman and Capt. Charles S. Wallace and Lieut. Frank P. Lahm were the other members present. Lieutenant Sweet of the navy and Lieut. Richard Creecy of the marine corps, detailed to Fort Myer aeronautical tests, assisted the board in its work.

The weekage of the aeroplane had been placed in the seroplane shop last night, and the members of the board, accompanied by Octave Chanute and Prof. Albert Zahm of the Catholic university, both of whom are authorities on aeronautism, inspected the tangled mass.

Major Squier reviewed the findings of the court after the meeting, which was in the nature of a coroner's hearing.

"The board finds that First Lieutenant Selfridge, First Field actillery, accompanied Mr. Wright by authority on the seroplane for the purpose of officially receiving instructions, and received injuries by the falline of the machine which resulted in his death."

The signal corps will proceed with its acronautical work and it is understood the Wright brothers will be permitted to make their official trials whenever they are ready without endangering their chance of receiving the contract price of $25,000 for their aeroplane.

Wright Makos Statement.

Mr. Wright said today.

"The mediane was already recovering its balance when it struck and I am sure if we had been twenty-five feet further up we would have landed on the skids without serious damage."

Present plans provide for the opening of the campaign in New York City on September 25, when Mr. Beveridge will speak at Carnegie hall on the subject of "Business and the Trusts," on September 29 at Terre Haute, Ind., on the subject of "Labor," answering the speech of Mr. Bryan at Chicago and Terre Haute on the same subject. Prominent North Carolina Democratic Editor Comes Out for Republican Leader.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 18,-Although the Hearst-Foraker controversy was the all-absorbing topic of political discussion here today, there was positive insistence on the part of those who did the discussing and speculating that what they said should not appear in print from them.

Judge Taft read Foraker's reply to Hearst upon arriving at his office shortly after 11 o'clock.

After an interview with Bishop Derrick of the Ohio conference of the African M. Taft to continue work on his speeches.

Senator Foraker and Senator Dick lunched together at the Sinton hotel and let it be known that they intended calling on Mr. Taft thereafter. Senator Dick went to the Taft residence later and made a short call on the candidate. It was admitted that the Foraker stitution was discussed briefly

After an interview with Taft today
Mr. McBee had this to say of the candidate:

I shall vote for Mr. Taft because he has it in his heart to bring my people of the South back into absolute union with the national life and to their historic place tional life and to their historic place as a controlling force in the nation, and to do which would immortalize him as a statesman. I shall vote for him because he more nearly represents my ideals of government, of social order and economic policy than any living Democrat or any man before the people today, save alone Theodore Roosevelt, who is the only Republican President I have ever voted for. Mr. Taft has administered every trust committed to him by the nation with a single eye to the nation's good and for the highest interests of the people. WOULD RAISE TARIFF TO FORCE CANADA'S HAND

AFFLETON, Wis., Sept. 18.—Instead of removing the tariff on wood pulp. Frank J. Sensenbronner, vice-president of the Kimberly & Clarke company, the largest individual paper concern in this country, testified today before the congressional investigation committee, that the sariff should be boosted to a prohibitive point and thereby force Canada into submission regarding the free exportation of pulp wood. Concerning the removal of duty on wood pulp, Mr. Sensenbrenner said positively that the American manufacturer could not make ground wood against Canadian competition if wood pulp were admitted free of duty.

The new letters, Mr. Hearst said, refute the claim of the Ohio Senator that all his work for the Standard Oil company related solely to Ohio matters.

A good sized audience greeted the New York editor when he began his speech at $130 o'clock, but approval of his utterances was by no means unanimous. Hisses mingled with cheers when he assailed the Democratic party and Mr. Bryan.

Not only did Hearst reply to Senator Foraker, but he also devoted a por-tion of his speech to Governor C. N. Haskell of Oklahoma, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, whom he charged with having served the Standard Oil company.
